

Cigars, Airplanes, Jeeps, A Steak Cookout and More - Paso Robles, California, with its outlaw history, great food and winemaking mavericks, makes a great place for a guys getaway. The fun factor is high, the fussiness factor is nonexistent. Time your visit for the weekend of September 10th, 2010 and you can attend both a cigar festival and an aviation expo. You're guaranteed to have stories to bring back to the man cave no matter when you visit.

September 10-11, 2010

Crush and Roll West – is a celebration of premium cigars, premium wine and the good life. The event will take place Sept. 10-11, 2010, in the heart of the Central Coast wine country. In addition to sampling world-class cigars, manly food and award-winning wines, attendees will learn the finer points of both from expert vintners and cigar manufacturers. www.crushandrollwest.com

Paso Robles Aviation Expo – spend the morning strolling amongst a variety of warbirds from WWII, Korean War, etc. Working airplanes on hand will include state of the art rescue helicopters, firefighting aircraft, CHP planes and more. Other static displays include model and experimental aircraft and there will be model aircraft aerobatics all day long. www.pasoairshow.org

All Year Round:

Cloud Climbers Jeep Tours - Back-Country Wine Tasting

Take a rugged, yet refined, wine tour with Cloud Climbers Jeep Tours. Climb aboard a classic, custom CJ8 Scrambler for a back-country adventure to taste some of Paso Robles' finest wines – off the beaten path! Cloud Climbers' signature "Back-Country Wine Tasting Tour" combines some off-road trails through vineyards and stops at four unique wineries for complimentary tasting & a picnic lunch. Departing daily. $99 / per person (TCP19968-S). www.ccjeeps.com Reservations Required. (805)646-3200

Cook Your Own Steak and Stagecoach Ride – Harris Stage Lines

Cook your own steak to your liking in a totally cool western setting, enjoy a complete meal with Caesar Salad, Ranch Beans, Garlic Bread, homemade Peach Cobbler with Ice cream, and Lemonade. Take a ride in an authentic Stagecoach that was built for comfort and speed. Gather around the campfire, roast a marshmallow, and share your wild west stories. Reservations required. Call for Pricing. www.harrisstagelines.com

The Art of Manly French Cooking – Dining with Andre

Andre is a giant among chefs and an altogether manly dude. He's not gonna baby you in the kitchen, but he will teach you the correct way to wield a chef's knife. Learn the basics of French cooking with an emphasis on bold flavors that will pair with your favorite Paso Robles wine or Cuban cigar. www.diningwithandre.com

Holy Back Nine, Batman

Some of the best golf on the Central Coast of California can be found at Hunter Ranch Golf Course, which will lull you into a false sense of tranquility with its beauty and then POW! sneak up and smack you on the handicap like Cat Woman on Robin.

www.hunterranchgolf.com

Lodging:

Beyond the Man Cave – If you want to sleep where Jesse James laid his ornery head while recovering from a gunshot wound and get a taste of some of the best steak in the country and some of the best cuisine in the region, book your stay at the Paso Robles Inn. Historically renowned for its healing waters, this site hosted outlaw Jesse James and international dignitary and composer Ignace Paderewski and nursed them both back to health. The old wells have been tapped and select rooms now offer their healing properties to the average mortal. The hotel also features a first-class steak house, cocktail lounge, an old-fashioned coffee shop and is located in the heart of Paso Robles.

www.pasoroblesinn.com

Fit for a King – If you believe that luxury is the epitome of manliness, then make LaBellasera your home base during your visit to Paso Robles. La Bellasera Inn and Suites offers you a spacious suite with a Jacuzzi tub, plasma televisions, wired and wireless high speed internet, thin client computer, fully stocked mini-bar, wetbar, two telephones in each room with speaker and dataports, voicemail, lap tables, premium in-room coffee & tea, room service for dining, and morning newspaper delivery. There is also a pool, gym and restaurant on site. www.labellasera.com

For more information these and other manly activities or to order a Paso Robles Destination guide, go to www.travelpaso.com or call 888.988.PASO (7276)